

Jen has been actively competitive in agility for over 20 years. In addition to Jen's handling and dog training skills, Jen's excellent teaching ability and ability to adapt to different styles of dogs is what makes Jen a highly sought after presenter and instructor across the country. In 2015, Jen was invited to be part of the OneMindDogs Coaches team. It was such an honor being 1 of 6 in the USA.

Over the years, Jen has seen tremendous success both Nationally and Internationally. She has won the Grand Prix and Steeplechase twice with her Sheltie, Britain. In 2018 she became the first person to win all 4 championships that USDAA has to offer. She has many placements at national events including AKC Nationals, Cynosports and the US Open. Internationally she has been part of several medaling teams (AKC and WAO) and won the Silver in Biathalon with Britain at the WAO. A consistent competitor for the USA, Jen has been on WAO team with 4 different dogs and the EO team with 3.

Jen has had a lot of success with her 4 year old Sheltie, Wicca including making the 2023 WAO team and being an alternate on the AKC AWC Team. Jen is currently competing with her Sheltie Wicca young, Sheltie Spec and her Border/Whippet, Phineas

Jen resides in Lapeer MI. She teaches classes and private lessons for FiredUp K9s at Highest Hope Dog Sports in Michigan. She also conducts online classes, seminars and workshops around the country. Contact her at firedupk9@yahoo.com
